How to Talk With Your Child About Sexuality and Relationships

Join Sexual Health Educator Heidi Winig, from the Askable Parent for an interactive workshop for parents and caregivers to:

- create an on-going dialogue with your child at any age and any stage
- establish yourself as your child's main resource for these conversations
- gain tools for initiating conversations and answering sensitive questions
- identify your own values about sexuality and relationships

Resilient Families: Navigating Substance Use & Abuse through the Teen Years

Join Huckleberry Youth Programs and TUHSD Wellness to begin a dialogue between teens and their parents/caregivers about substance use and abuse. In this 90 minute workshop, we will introduce families to the landscape of teen substance use and abuse in Marin County, information about adolescent development, and strategies to help build communication and understanding between youth and their caregivers. Intended for caregivers and their teens to attend together, Resilient Families is intended as a first step in establishing a common ground around this pressing issue.

For teens together with their parents/caregivers.

Gap Year Fair

The evening will start with a guest speaker in the Student Center at 6:00pm. The fair itself begins at 6:45pm in the Gymnasium where there will be over 35 exhibitors in attendance. Students/parents can get a broad exposure to Gap Year Programs and have face-to-face conversations with the people who work in the field.

All Marin County high school families are invited, so pre-registration is highly encouraged via www.drakefund.com.

For more information, please contact Lisa Neumaier in the College and Career Center.

THE MASK YOU LIVE IN Teen Wellness Film Series

Research shows that, compared to girls, boys in the U.S. are more likely to be diagnosed with a behavior disorder, prescribed stimulant medications, fail out of school, binge drink, commit violent crime, and/or take their own lives. The Mask You Live In follows boys and young men as they struggle to stay true to themselves while negotiating America's narrow definition of masculinity.
